

Variety's 'Actors on Actors' on PBS SoCal Nominated for Emmy

JUNE 4, 2015 | 12:01AM PT

BEN HASSETT FOR VARIETY

Variety Staff (<http://variety.com/author/variety-staff/>)

The PBS SoCal special “Variety Studio: Actors on Actors” (<http://variety.com/t/variety-studio-actors-on-actors/>)” is among the nominees for the 67th annual Los Angeles Area Emmy Awards (<http://variety.com/t/los-angeles-area-emmy-awards/>).

The interview special that features pairings of prominent actors discussing their craft is a contender in the entertainment programming category.

“Actors on Actors,” a co-production between Variety and PBS SoCal, will vie against KTLA’s “Live From the Oscars” and KCBS/KCAL’s “Lexus: Music Uncovered” series.

(<https://variety.com/v/video/actors-on-actors/>)

In the competitive investigative reporting category, Fox's KTTV is up against KCBS and Univision's KMEX, which has two nominations. Hard news reporting noms went to KCBS/KCAL's David Goldstein and Catherine Gelera; KVEA's Azucena Gomez; KMEX's Antonio Valverde; and separate noms for KNBC's Robert Kovacic and Tony Shin.

In the competition for the three regularly scheduled newscast categories, there are no nominations; all stations that submit entries are contenders. The morning and daily newscast races this year are among KTTV, KTLA, KNBC, KMEX and Telemundo's KVEA. Those stations are also entrants in the evening newscast heat along with KCAL's 10 p.m. newscast.

KCBS anchor Pat Harvey will receive this year's Governors Award in recognition of her long run in the Los Angeles market. Before joining KCBS in 2010, she was an anchor at KCAL for 20 years.

Winners in 46 categories will be handed out during a July 25 ceremony at the Skirball Cultural Center.
